Spotlight on These New Additions...

Great Books and Videos

“Memory is the library of the mind”

~ Francis Fauvel-Gourand

Improving Speech and Eating Skills in Children with Autism Spectrum Disorder: An Oral-Motor Program for Home and School (2008)

“For parents and professionals—this is a book that will not just sit on your bookshelf. In this very practical resource, Maureen combines her extensive knowledge and training to create a step-by-step analysis and program that can be incorporated in everyday life.”

Intellectual Disability: Definition, Classification, and Systems of Supports (2012)

“This practical new Guide on the 2010 AAIDD Intellectual Disability: Definition, Classification, and Systems of Supports manual informs clinicians, educators, policy makers, and program managers how to implement the various components of the AAIDD definition system in their specific job settings.”

The Development of Children (2009)

“Like no other text, The Development of Children tells the story of how biological and cultural processes intertwine over the course of childhood. Building on the legacy of Michael and Shelia Cole, and now under the lead authorship of Cynthia Lightfoot, this acclaimed textbook enters an exciting new era, bringing an integrated biocultural perspective to the teaching and learning of child development.”

Great Books and Videos

“A library is not a luxury but one of the necessities of life”

~ Henry Ward Beecher

The Exceptional Child: Inclusion in Early Childhood Education (2004)

“The Exceptional Child: Inclusion in Early Childhood Education is an exceptional book about exceptional children. The authors emphasize that exceptional children are developing normally in most areas, and are as diverse individually as are all other children. They stress the importance of a thorough knowledge of normal development so that teachers know what to look for when they see developmental deviations. They provide the tools teachers need....”

Child Development 3rd edition (2004)

“This third edition of Child Development seeks to capture the discipline in a way that sparks and nurtures and shapes readers’ interest. It is meant to excite students about the field, to draw them into its way of looking at the world, and to mold their understanding of developmental issues. This text is designed to keep interest in the discipline alive long after students’ formal study of the field has ended.”

Observing and Understanding Child Development: A Child Study Manual (2007)

“Observing and Understanding Child Development: A Child Study Manual is a book with the benefits of a resource and workbook, designed to help students and practitioners learn to gather and interpret data to gain insight into child development.”

Build-A-Bear Introduces Autism Speaks Bear

Build-A-Bear Workshop, the interactive entertainment retailer of customizable stuffed animals, announced the launch of a special bear to support Autism Speaks and its Light It Up Blue campaign during Autism Awareness Month. The Autism Speaks Bear ($18) arrived on March 27 and $1 from the sale of this bear will be donated to Autism Speaks. An Autism Speaks bear-sized Tiny Tees® shirt ($7) will also be available, with 50 cents from every tee sold going directly to the charity. Throughout April, Guests can also donate $1 (or more) to Autism Speaks when they check out at Build-A-Bear Workshop stores in the United States or online at www.buildabear.com.

World Autism Awareness Day April 2

Each April 2, Autism Speaks celebrates Light It Up Blue along with the international autism community, in commemoration of the United Nations-sanctioned World Autism Awareness Day. Light It Up Blue is a unique global initiative that kicks-off Autism Awareness Month and helps raise awareness about autism.

In honor of this historic day, many iconic landmarks, hotels, sporting venues, concert halls, museums, bridges and retail stores are among the hundreds of thousands of homes and communities that take part to Light It Up Blue.

—About the Library—

The library is a collaborative effort between BabyNet/South Carolina Department of Health and Environmental Control, the Center for Disability Resources, the South Carolina Department of Disabilities and Special Needs, and the University of South Carolina School of Medicine Library. The CDR Library consists of books, videos, brochures, and audiotapes covering a variety of disability-related topics. The Center for Disability Resources Library is located within the University of South Carolina School of Medicine Library on Garners Ferry Road.
