Spotlight on These New Additions...

Great Books and Videos

Facing the Future, Best Practice in Supported Employment (1996)

- "For 'Facing the Future', we've gathered thirty-two articles. The words of these articles have the power to help change people's lives. They offer research analysis, new approaches and commentary vital for anyone who works in supported employment"

Engaging and Empowering Families in Secondary Transition, A Practitioner's Guide (2009)

- "An expanded follow-up to a CEC bestseller, this guide includes tools for assessing families' and practitioners' engagement in practices that promote positive post-school outcomes for youth with disabilities. It gives schools and agencies planning tools and practical strategies to foster family partnerships"

A Principal's Guide To Special Education (2006)

- "This resource has virtually everything principals need to know about special education, from special education law to selecting and evaluating special education staff. Topics include discipline, IDEA 2004, NCLB, evaluation of students with disabilities, inclusion, adaptations, and due process. New and experienced principals alike will find this book invaluable."

"Either write something worth reading or do something worth writing"

-Benjamin Franklin

Partners in Play; Assessing Infants and Toddlers in Natural Contexts (2007)

- “This text includes specific instructions for observing, administering, scoring, and interpreting results of assessment, as well as two extensive illustrations from the field. The text includes a new criterion-referenced instrument to identify infants and toddlers, birth through age three, who may be eligible for early intervention services...”

The creative Curriculum for Family Child Care (1998)

- “The Creative Curriculum for Family Child Care is the only research-based, comprehensive curriculum that addresses the unique strengths and challenges of family child care. It helps family child care providers design high-quality home-based programs that are responsive to the needs of children from birth to age 12. It also helps family child care educators to integrate learning into every moment of the day.”

Practical Solutions to Practically Every Problem, The Early Childhood Teacher's Manual (2003)

- “Find solutions quickly and easily! This revised classic offers hundreds of updated tested solutions for the tricky problems, questions, and concerns that arise throughout the early childhood teacher's day. Based on sound developmental theory, this how-to book on classroom management techniques enables beginning and experienced teachers alike to run effective, successful programs.”

This two-day conference is for parents of children with special needs and professionals who care for them. It is an opportunity to explore the issues and challenges that families face in caring for children with developmental disabilities, chronic illnesses and long-term health needs. There are workshops covering a wide range of issues including behavior, care & treatment, education, family care, finances and more.
