The Library’s Latest: A Note from the Coordinator

—In case you missed them, make sure to check out any of our Top Ten titles listed on the left side-bar and subsequent pages.

—We received a total of 121 reference questions; 43 research questions; 58 check-out requests; 36 renewal requests; distributed 101 web articles and/or journal printouts; and, handed out 408 pamphlets. Finally, we had 6 new patrons join the library!

—I will be exhibiting the library’s services and resources at the “Making Connections for a Brighter Tomorrow” meeting in Greenwood, SC, on August 13th.

—Also, this month is the 14th Annual People on the Go Fundraiser, which will be a Bowlathon at the AMF Columbia Lanes on 1732 Bush River Road Saturday, July 19 from 1-4 p.m. For more information call 748-5020 or 787-0286, or you can read the fundraiser announcement on page 2 of this newsletter. Have a safe and wonderful July 4th holiday, everyone!

Top Ten Checkouts for the Year

   — “People with autism have been reported by researchers as being the most difficult population to toilet train. This book offers effective strategies for teaching toileting skills. You will learn how to teach the person to: overcome the fear of the bathroom, prevent repeated flushing, etc.”

   — “This video focuses on successful people with disabilities working in a wide range of careers and work settings. The Role Models’ stories help employers and employment specialists appreciate the contributions, creativity, and enthusiasm that people with disabilities bring to the workplace.”

“Books are the bees which carry the quickening pollen from one to another mind.”
~James Russell Lowell~
“Books to the ceiling,
Books to the sky,
My pile of books is a mile high.
How I love them!
How I need them!
I'll have a long beard by the time I read them. “
~Arnold Lobel~

4. Open Futures: People with Disabilities (2003)
   —“This fast moving, youth-focused DVD features role models with disabilities in a wide range of employment settings. The role models talk about their career paths, what inspires them about their work, and why work is important.”

   —“This program provides the rare opportunity to hear a person with autism discuss her condition and how she deals with life. Dr. Grandin offers many insights into the motivations behind autistic behavior and how parents, teachers, and therapists can better work with children that have been diagnosed...”

2. Signing Time! (2002)
   —“From their magical animated tree house, Alex and Leah invite infants and children to "Come sign with us!" Watch and enjoy as Alex, Leah, and all their friends share 18 American Sign Language (ASL) signs with your child in a fun and playful way. It's My First Signs - ASL signs you can use everyday!”

   —“In a snappy, can-do format, 1001 Great Ideas for Teaching and Raising Children with Autism Spectrum Disorders offers page after page of try-it-now solutions that have worked for thousands of children grappling with social, sensory, behavioral, and self-care issues, plus many more.”
