

Biography – Sam Hodge Georgetown County Emergency Management

BIOGRAPHY:

Sam Hodge currently serves as the Emergency Manager for Georgetown County Emergency Management. In his third year with Emergency Management, he formerly served as a Battalion Chief with Midway Fire Rescue in Pawley's Island where he spent most of twenty years in Emergency Services. During his career at Midway Fire Rescue he served in all ranks starting as a Firefighter Paramedic progressing through the ranks to Lieutenant and then to the position of Battalion Chief. While at Midway Fire Rescue he was honored with the Community Service, Meritorious Service, Officer of the Year and the South Carolina Meritorious Action Directly Resulting in the Saving of Life award. He resides in Murrells Inlet with his wife Tonya and has four children.

