

InfoAble Portal

A project of the Center for Disability Resources Library

How to use the InfoAble Portal

What is the InfoAble Portal?

- The InfoAble Portal provides quick access to quality, trustworthy information that is freely available from the Center for Disability Resources (CDR) Library and the National Library of Medicine.

Access the InfoAble Portal

- InfoAble Portal: <https://uscmcd.sc.libguides.com/infoableportal>
- It is also easily accessible from the Family Connection of SC web site: www.familyconnectionsc.org

Topics

- Check this page to see if your topic is listed (Topics are based on Family Connection support groups)
- Contains deep links to resources based on the topic
- The “Other Topics” button takes you to a list of library materials available for checkout by topic

Health Information

- Provides access to MedlinePlus (medlineplus.gov) from the National Library of Medicine
- Offers authoritative, reviewed, up to date health information on a wide variety of topics
- No advertising or commercial endorsements

Books and Videos

- Provides access to the Center for Disability Resources (CDR) Library catalog
- Free for anyone in the U.S. to use

Ask A Librarian

- Looking for a book? Have a question? Email (steve.wilson@uscmcd.sc.edu) or call (803-216-3206) Steve Wilson, the librarian

Research Articles

- Provides access to PubMed (pubmed.gov) from the National Library of Medicine
- Use to find medical journal article citations and abstracts
- Some free full text available

Clinical Trials

- Provides access to ClinicalTrials.gov from the National Library of Medicine
- Use to search for clinical trials in your area

Kid's InfoAble Portal

- Provides access to kid-friendly web pages from KidsHealth (<https://kidshealth.org>)