Title Searching

- Must use exact word order
- You may enter as much or as little of the title as you like, then press <Enter> or click Submit Search.
- Punctuation is ignored, so you may leave it in or out

Keyword Searching

- Enter words in any order from title, author, contents, subject, summary, etc.
- Boolean operators (AND, OR, NOT) may be used
- Words may be truncated with an asterisk
- Choose “SOM Catalog” from the drop-down menu to find materials owned only by the School of Medicine Library

Author Searching

- Type the author’s LAST name first and as much of the first name as you want
- Punctuation and case is ignored
- You may also type the name of an editor, organization, or agency
- Press <Enter> or click Submit Search

Journals Searching

- Click on “Look for Journals” in the bottom right-hand corner
- Search journals by title or keyword, as specified above